FACULTY

Among the Chesaning Faculty of twenty-two members are several who were not here last year. The part-time services of Rev. Otto Hood and Mrs. Reva Craig were replaced by a full time teacher. Mrs. Craig passed away during the summer.

New teachers are: Mrs. Sarah Lou Seelye, who was hired as an extra second grade teacher to relieve the overload in that grade; Mrs. Laura Stewart, eighth and ninth English and Girls' Physical Education, Miss Florence Sutton, Home Economics, and Mr. George Killmaster, Coach.

Replaced teachers are: Miss F. May Chauncey, retired, and Mr. George Takacs who is coaching near his home in Illinois.

Standing--Schnick, Yanko, Richardson, Koviack. Sitting--
McCaffrey, Klump, Stasa, Wood, Luha, Stewart, Himm.
Director--Mr. Ellis.

IT'S TOUGH TO BE RICH

Before an audience that packed the high school auditorium Friday evening, April 16, a well chosen cast of seniors put on a bang-up performance of "It's Tough to be Rich."

Spectators were liberal with applause, laughter, and compliments for the three act comedy and for the individual contribution of each member of the cast.

Between acts, an adapted version of "Slap 'Er Down Agin, Paw", accompanied by slapstick dramatization, provided merriment that really "brought down the house."

Latest returns on the ticket sale indicate that there were between 700 and 900 in the audience, a turn-out that was gratifying to the cast, the director, and sponsoring class, the seniors.

BOLTS AND NUTS

The annual Junior Play, "Bolts and Nuts" was given November 21, under the direction of Mr. Blue.

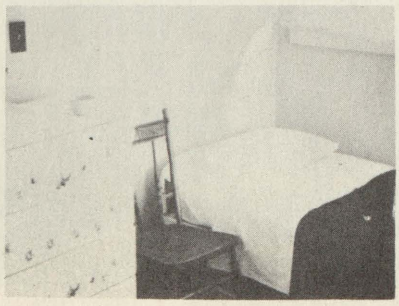
F. H. A.

The F.H.A. sponsored by Miss Florence Sutton, has had a successful year. Three of its members have held state and regional offices as follows: State president, Marilyn Ringler; Regional chairman, Doris Schnick; Regional secretary Roberta Richardson. These officers with Miss Sutton, Marion Dodge, Beatrice Sedlar, and Patricia Barrett represented our club at the annual State Convention. Marilyn Ringler and Roberta Richardson, by virtue of their offices have the privilege of attending the National Convention.



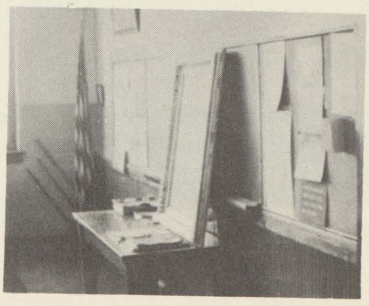
Standing--Stasa, Ziegler, White, Ringler, Himm. Seated--Hafner Yanko, Rice, Korf, Richardson.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society of Chesaning, Chapter No. 1577 organized in 1935, contains eighty-seven members. These members are chosen each year from the Junior and Senior classes by the High School Faculty. The members are rated on service character, leadership and scholarship.

According to the regulation set up by the National Honor Society only those who rank in the upper third of their class are eligible for membership.

The seniors are entitled to a number not to exceed fifteen per cent of their membership while the Juniors may have five per cent with the additional ten per cent selected in their senior year.



Standing--Mrs. Stewart, Richards, Studor, Korth, Gray, Mr. Blue.
Seated--Kimmel, Ringler, Rice.

FORENSICS

Wilma Kimmel placed first and Laura Korth second in the Oratorical Declamations; Helen Rice took first and Don Gray second in the Dramatic Declamations; Blanche Studor was chosen first and Marilyn Ringler second in the original orations, in the local Forensics Contest which took place March 16 and 17. Jack Richards was the only competitor in the extempore speaking division. This is the first year that anyone from Chesaning has participated in extempore speaking.

Four schools participated in the district contest held at Chesaning, April 15. Wilma Kimmel won first in the Oratorical Declamations and Blanche Studor placed first with her Oration. Don Gray placed second in the Dramatic Declamations. The first place winners entered the regional contest at Lansing in May.

The Forensics were under the direction of Mrs. Stewart and Mr. Blue.

The Freshman and Sophomore boys received valuable experience in playing a schedule of games during the season which should help them to become varsity material in a year or two.

GIRL'S BASKETBALL

This year the Physical Education classes were under the direction of Mrs. Laura Stewart. Two teams, made up mostly of Sophomore and Junior girls, were picked from these groups. In addition, four Senior girls, who did not have a Physical Education class, practiced during the noon hour in order to play on the team. This was a poor season for the girls, they having won only one game out of seven. The second team, however, gave a good showing, winning five out of six games.
